AND THE FIRST WEEK BACK .....

No zooming this week. The look was masks on and a live get together over fish, chips and salad at The Cashmere Club.

Everyone was very jovial and happy just to be together chatting and connecting. The meeting started with the International toast - toasting a Rotary Club near where Colonel Sanders KFC was from. How clever considering we have all been busy Henshing!

Alan Airay gave an update as to where we are at with our Chicken Manure Fundraiser. With a few bills to pay, a final update will be given in due course. It's looking like a great success. Thanks to everyone who willingly gave their time including all the rearrangements that had to be made due to Level 4 Covid and isolation. A job well done. A huge thanks to Alan who worked tirelessly to ensure everything ran smoothly. Also to the many others including Alan McKinnon who worked hard in the background. There was to be a Club Forum but time ran out so that will be shifted to a later date. It was great to see Joey back and as always he did a great job as Sergeant.

Viv gave a brief outline regarding this coming weeks speaker from The Food Bank. Donations of food ( tins, instant coffee, Milo..... ) are requested.

Hopefully we are on a roll and Zoom meetings can be a thing of the past. We remain hopeful.

Huge thanks to Viv Ellis – meeting reporter

SCHOOL SPEECH COMPETITION

On Monday 27th September the Year 7 and 8 Speech Competition was held at the Beckenham School hall. The participating schools were: Cashmere, St Martins, Opawa, Hillview and Beckenham.

This year two people from Toastmasters were the judges. Thank you Leonie and Karen. Shelia from Toastmasters was the MC. We were very grateful for their expertise on the night.

Year 7 place getters were: 1st Peita Bennett from Cashmere, 2nd Mila Dijkstra from St Martins and 3rd Esmae Grimwood from Hillview. Year 8 place getters were: 1st Olivia King from Hillview, Zoe Clarke from Beckenham and Vaibhav Jayan from St Martins School. Congratulation to you all.

Pieta and Olivia will be sharing their speeches with Christchurch South Rotary on 27 October.

Well done to all the participants.
