Regional Membership Officer
Zones 26 and 27
Western United States

The Regional Membership Development team can assist you in developing and implementing membership development strategies by helping you analyze and understand membership data, create and deliver membership training sessions, and discover relevant resources and tools to meet your membership goals. Here are several key membership topics that we can discuss to help you strengthen membership in your zone, district or club:

- Attraction and recruitment
- Engagement and retention
- Membership/ club flexibility
- Diversity, equity, and inclusion

I am also a Rotarian and have served in several capacities covering youth and alumni programs, training, membership, fundraising, as Club President and as an Assistant Governor.
