

This email is being sent to all of the Club Presidents & Assistant Governors,

Please consider applying for, or putting in a nomination for these awards

Awards are important because: “You pay volunteers with recognition”.

Second: Awards highlight our achievements

Third: Awards direct the volunteers’ energies to desired activities.

Fourth: Awards inspire others to get involved and help with future projects

Information about these awards and corresponding applications can be found on the District 7475 website at www.njrotary.org click on the “Awards” section on the right-hand side and download the information.
