ROTARY 9620

Welcome to Rotary International District 9620, a vibrant community spanning Southeast Queensland from Brisbane west to Charleville, south to Ormeau, and north to Gympie, while also encompassing the diverse nations of Nauru, Papua New Guinea, and the Solomon Islands. Our district boasts an impressive network of 120 Rotary clubs and around 2400 dedicated members.

Rotary members, individuals primarily aged between 35 and 80, embody a commitment to community service, transcending religious and political affiliations.

Our annual conference serves as a nexus for Rotarians to connect, exchange ideas, and draw inspiration from impactful local and international projects. With plenary sessions, project displays, and formal and informal events, the conference offers unparalleled opportunities for engagement and networking. As a sponsor, you have the chance to showcase your business to a discerning audience known for valuing trust and community connection.
