

The Club Leadership Plan

Purpose

The Club Leadership Plan helps clubs increase their ability to meet their goals in each Avenue of Service.

Four Avenues of Service

- Remain the guiding vision for Rotary clubs
- Addressed through the club's annual goals

Benefits

- Continuity in projects and decision making
- Consensus for decision making and goal setting
- Increased ability to achieve service goals
- A larger and stronger field of club leaders
- Succession planning for club leadership
- Involves all club members in club activities

“Thank you for giving us the opportunity to embrace this new structure. It has given us the freedom to think outside the box and to reenergize the club by shaking it up and cleaning house.”

Understanding the CLP

- Provides a list of best practices
- Can be implemented at any time
- Supported by the Recommended Rotary Club Bylaws
- Includes simplified list of standing club committees that are supported by the district structure

The CLP Best Practices

1. Develop long-range plan that address the elements of an effective club.
2. Use the Planning Guide for Effective Rotary Clubs to set annual goals that are in harmony with your club's long-range goals.
3. Conduct club assemblies that involve members in the planning process and keep them informed of Rotary activities.

The CLP Best Practices

4. Ensure clear communication between club leaders, club members, and district leaders.
5. Provide for continuity in leadership, including the concept of succession planning to ensure development of future leaders.

The CLP Best Practices

6. Amend club bylaws to reflect the club committee structure and roles and responsibilities of club leaders.
7. Provide opportunities to increase fellowship among club members.
8. Ensure that every member is active in a club project or function.

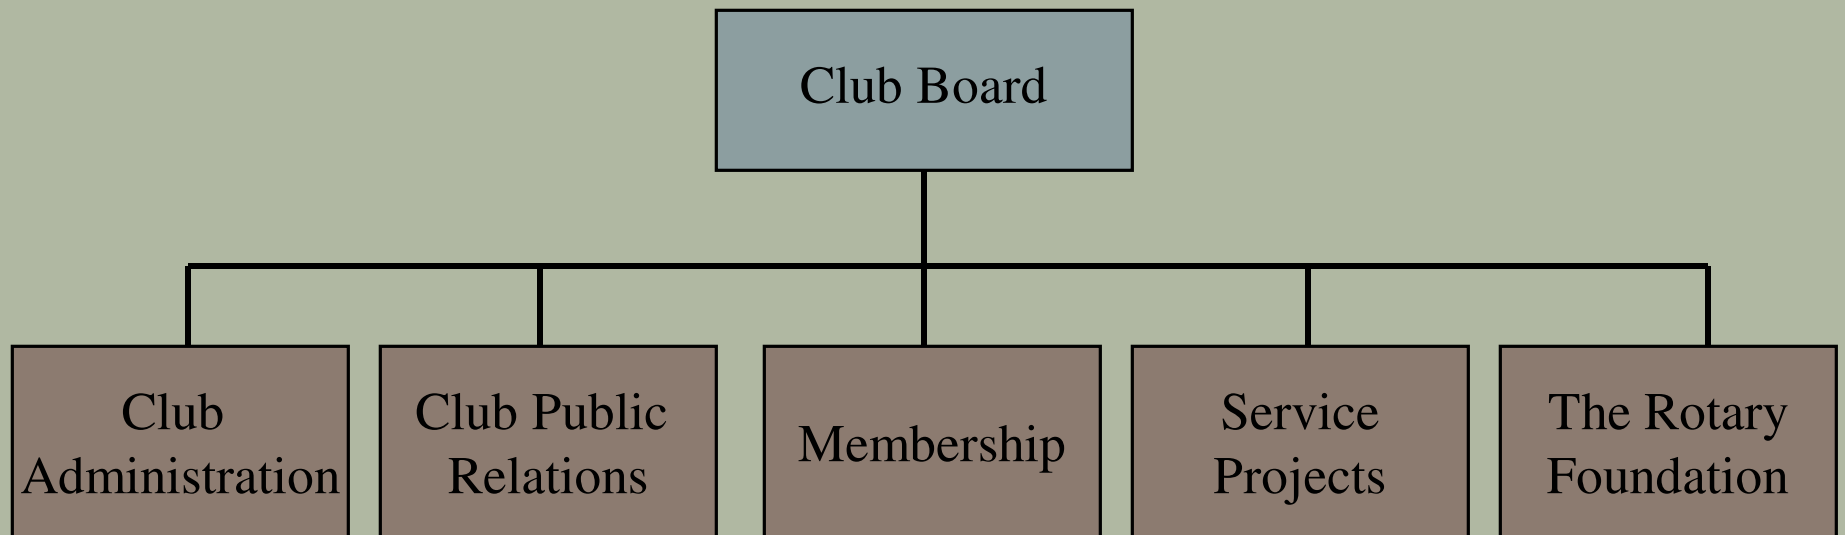

The CLP Best Practices

9. Develop a comprehensive training plan that ensures
 - Club leaders attend district training meetings
 - Orientation is provided for new members
