

Child Development

Asha Kiran... a ray of hope, is the name given to the Child Development initiative to send 1,50,000 out of school children back to school. Under Child development program children from vulnerable communities who have never been enrolled to any School or have been dropped out of school, are send back to school after required brushing up. The objective is to facilitate these children's access to mainstream state funded primary / elementary schools.

As of now the Asha Kiran program has been implemented across 15 states and 2 Union Territory of India in partnership with 34 NGOs.

Asha Kiran children are those aged between 7 to 14 years who :

-  Have never been to school, or
-  are not attending school but nominally enrolled, irregular, laggard or absent for more than 45 days without informing the school
