

Rotary Opens Opportunities in District 7230

Incoming Governor's Remarks 2020-21

Mary Eileen Shackleton

June 27, 2020

What makes this time of year so special?

- ❖ We thank and celebrate the achievements of those who led us in 2019-20!
- ❖ Those of us passed the baton of office publicly acknowledge our responsibility as servant leaders!

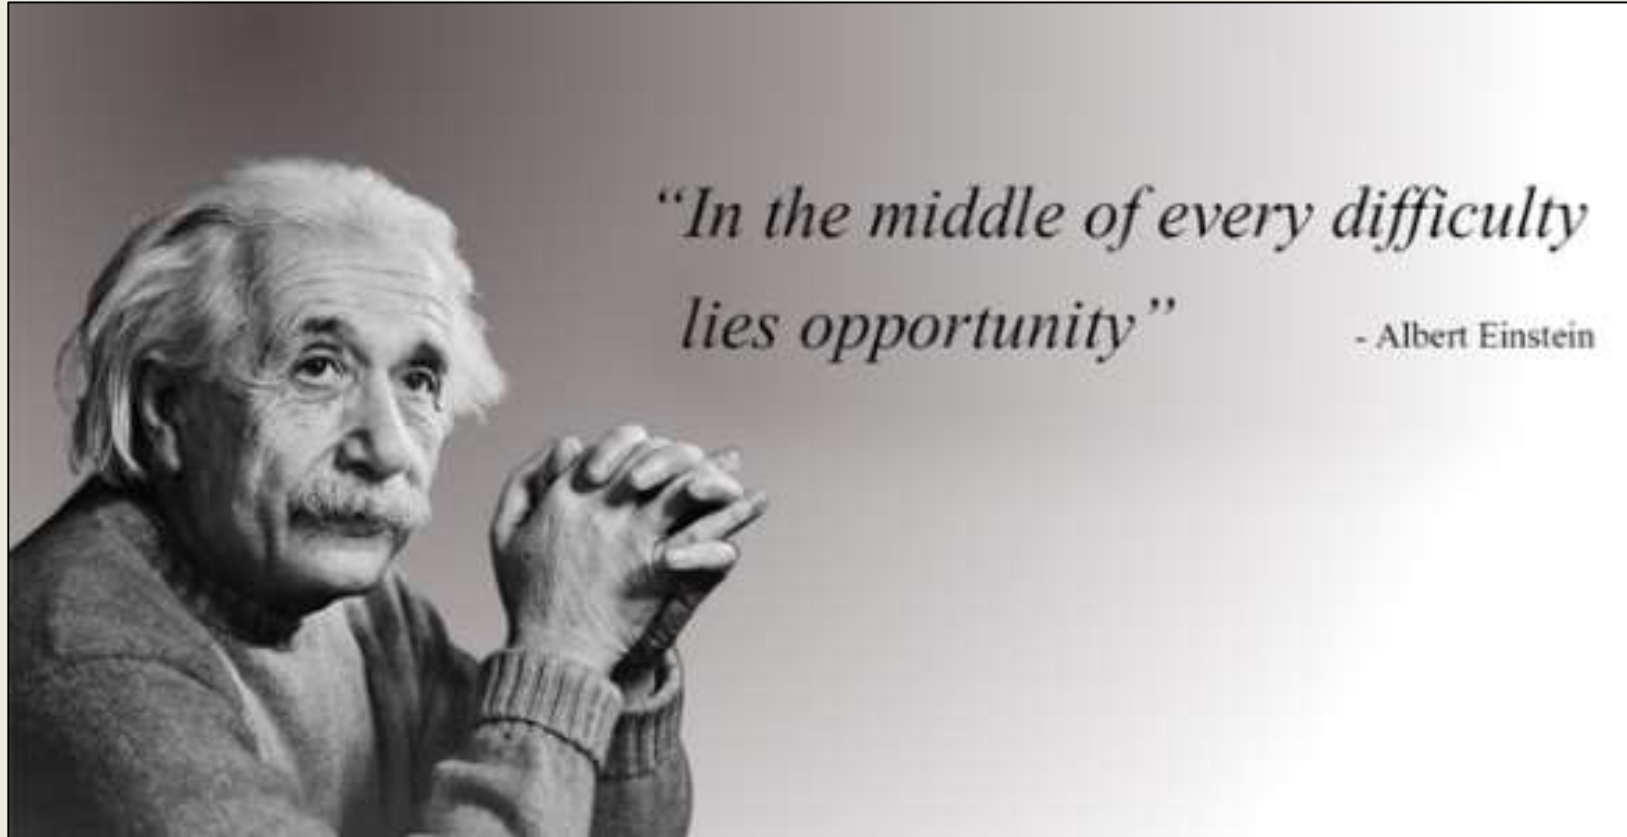

Rotary Leaders Should Remember:

- ❖ Successful relay runners continually practice passing the baton!
- ❖ There is no “I” in team!
- ❖ It’s “OUR” (not “MY”) year!
- ❖ The Rotary Year goes by so quickly!

Can we have a quick virtual team
huddle?
Because we really need to talk...

“In the middle of every difficulty lies opportunity”

- Albert Einstein

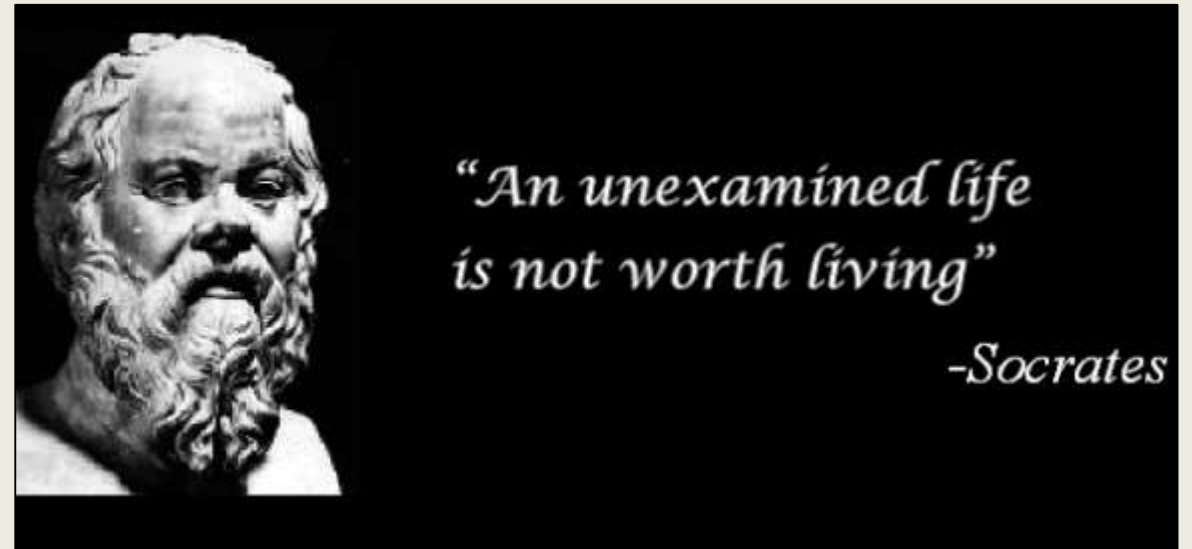

Will we seize this day?

- ❖ Will our Rotary Family use all that we've lost, all that we've learned, and all that has been laid bare as a moment of self-reflection and a catalyst for change?
- ❖ It's up to US!

Let's take a fresh look at questions that still challenge our organization

- ❖ When beginning a new Rotary assignment
- ❖ In regular member surveys
- ❖ At members-only club assemblies
- ❖ As we form strategic plans

If your club's member experience was a product, would YOU buy it?

How well do your members understand what Rotary International does?

If you held a mirror up to your club, would you see a reflection of your community?

Does your club set out the welcome mat
for EVERYONE in your community?
