

How we became Rotary District 5870

Chicago attorney Paul Harris invited a few friends to meet after work on February 23, 1905 for what is now regarded as the first meeting of the first Rotary Club. Just eight years later there would also be Rotary Clubs in Austin and Waco, a thousand miles away. In those horse-and-buggy* days, it was unusual for a concept like Rotary to leap such a distance so quickly, but the world's first "service club" was a fresh and exciting concept.

The story of Rotary in central Texas parallels the story of the entire Rotary movement. And as Rotary continues to add clubs, we add lines to our ledgers and pages to our narrative history. Between July 1, 2016 and June 30 of 2017 each club in our district writes a new chapter of its history. One club, Marlin, celebrates its 85th charter anniversary while ten other clubs are celebrating significant milestones during this 2016-2017 Rotary Year. (Details on anniversary clubs follow this district history.)

Our two oldest clubs, Austin and Waco, celebrated their 100th anniversaries in 2013, having been meeting weekly since 1913, which makes them older than District 5870. In fact they are older than the very concept of Rotary Districts. In August 1910 Rotary's first national convention was held in Chicago, home of the 1905 original Rotary club. There were only 16 clubs but by August 1911 when the second annual convention convened in Portland, Rotary had grown to 27 clubs.

Clubs organized rapidly from that time forward creating a steady flow of questions for officers of the National Association of Rotary Clubs. At first, NARC aggregated clubs into Divisions, each under a Vice President's jurisdiction. Rotary's third annual convention, held August 1912 in Duluth Minnesota, changed NARC into IARC, the International Association of Rotary Clubs, because of the Rotary Club of Winnipeg, Canada – chartered in April 1912.

Rotary's sixth convention (San Francisco, July 1915) replaced Divisions with geographical areas known by the still current name of Rotary Districts. District 12 was comprised of clubs in Texas and Louisiana. District 12's first governor, serving through June 1916, was William H. Richardson, Jr. who had been a charter member of the Rotary Club of Austin and its third president. Waco Rotary Club invited Governor Richardson to hold his Conference in Waco. It convened November 1, 1915, in Waco's Retail Merchants Association offices in the Amicable Building. IARC President Allen Albert of Minneapolis and IARC Vice President Robert Cornell of Houston attended our first district conference.

District 12's second Governor was Lynn B. Milam from the Rotary Club of Dallas, a club that had been meeting since April 1911 and has the distinction of being the first Rotary Club in Texas. In 1917, Louisiana clubs were reassigned to an adjoining district. District 12 then consisted of the 19 clubs in Texas. Houston became the only other club to provide District 12 with a Governor, Elijah Coles, because by the June 1918 completion of Coles' term, Rotary's growth had again caused redistricting. Lone Star Rotarians became Rotary District 18, whose first DG, Thomas S. Reed, came from the Beaumont club. District 18's second governor came from a club in present day 5870, the Rotary Club of Austin. Dr. Robert E. Vinson's day job was president of the University of Texas.

During Rotary's 1922 international convention IARC became RI when convention delegates changed the name of the parent organization from the International Association of Rotary Clubs to Rotary International. The state of Texas except for the area south of the eastern boundary of New Mexico became District 13 with 83 clubs. Three years later, with about 100 clubs, Texas was split into Districts 41, 47 and 48 effective July 1, 1925. Austin, Waco, and the area northwest became District 41.

Texas had nearly 6,000 members in about 125 clubs in 1926 when San Antonio's Harry H. Rogers became the first Texan to serve as president of Rotary International. Our district number changed to 128 in 1937, then 131 in 1948, then 187 in 1949, and in 1958 we became 587. During 1991, each of Rotary's 491 districts added a zero after their district number in anticipation of a larger number of small districts to ease the workload on district governors. Instead, RI's legislative council created assistant governors. The zero remains.

District 5870 begins 2016-17 with 62 clubs. Worldwide 1.2 million Rotarians meet weekly in more than 200 countries and geographical areas. Their humanitarian efforts impact lives at both the local and international level.

----- NOTES -----

Henry Ford had begun production of his Model T in 1908, just 3 years after Paul Harris established the world's first civic service club in 1905 in Chicago. Paul referred to that 1905 meeting as "horse-and-buggy days" in Rotarian magazine's February 1946 edition. (Rotarian Magazine's February 1946 edition was already in the mail when Paul Harris died on January 27, 1946 at the age of 78.)

Clubs Celebrating 2016-17 Charter Anniversaries

To help plan club calendars the District Historian compiled a list of round numbered club charter anniversaries that fall between July 1, 2016 and June 30, 2017. While a club could celebrate every year like children's birthday parties, adults find that excessive so it is traditional to save the party for a round number. Our list displays every 5th year. Years divisible by 25 are such major milestones that RI licensed vendor Russell Hampton (www.ruh.com) sells membership lapel pins customized for 25th, 50th, 75th, and 100th year club members. Pins range in price from $2.70 to $3.65 apiece depending on quantity. Consider asking each club member for $5 to absorb any postage & handling fees. Go to that price list directly by using one of these:

Past Rotary International Directors from District 5870 Clubs

Rotary International is governed by a board of directors composed of the international president, the president-elect, the general secretary, and 17 zone directors. Approximately 15 Rotary districts form a zone. A Rotarian who serves as a member of the RI board of directors represents two zones. The paired zones alternate nominating a PDG from their zone to serve on the RI board for two consecutive years. During 2015-16, 5870 was represented by RIVP/RID Greg E. Podd residing in D-5450. Effective 1 July 2016 Jorge Aufranc is the RI Director representing us. He is a member of the Rotary Club of Guatemala Sur and is a Past Governor of District 4250 which includes Belize, Guatemala & Honduras.
