Rotary District 5870

HISTORY

“How we became 5870”

PDG Rich Kaye, District Historian

The story of Rotary in Texas parallels the story of the entire Rotary movement which began when Chicago attorney Paul Harris invited a few friends to meet him after work on February 23, 1905 for what is now regarded as the first meeting of the first Rotary club. Just 8 years later civic leaders in Austin and Waco, a thousand miles south of Chicago, received club charters from the National Association of Rotary Clubs (now known as Rotary International). Without social media in those horse-and-buggy days, it was unusual for a new concept like Rotary to “go viral,” but the world’s first service club was a fresh and exciting concept.

Chartered in 1913, our Austin and Waco clubs are older than the very concept of Rotary Districts. In August 1910 Rotary’s first national convention was held in Chicago, home of the original Rotary club. There were only 16 clubs but by August 1911 when the second annual convention convened in Portland, Rotary had grown to 27 clubs.

Clubs organized rapidly from that time forward creating a steady flow of questions for officers of the National Association of Rotary Clubs. At first, NARC aggregated clubs into Divisions, each under a Vice President’s jurisdiction. Rotary’s third annual convention, held August 1912 in Duluth Minnesota, changed NARC into IARC, the International Association of Rotary Clubs, because of the Rotary Club of Winnipeg, Canada – chartered in April 1912.

Rotary’s 6th convention (San Francisco, July 1915) replaced Divisions with geographical areas known as Rotary Districts. District 12 was comprised of clubs in Texas and Louisiana. Our first governor, serving through June 1916, was William H. Richardson, Jr. who had been a charter member of the Rotary Club of Austin and its 3rd president. Waco Rotary Club invited Governor Richardson to hold his Conference in their city. It convened on November 1, 1915, in Waco’s Retail Merchants Association offices in the Amicable Building. IARC President Allen Albert of Minneapolis and IARC Vice President Robert Cornell of Houston attended our first district conference.

District 12’s second Governor was Lynn B. Milam from the Rotary Club of Dallas, a club that had been meeting since April 1911 and has the distinction of being the first Rotary Club in Texas. In 1917, Louisiana clubs were reassigned to an adjoining district. District 12 then consisted of the 19 clubs in Texas. Houston became the only other club to provide District 12 with a Governor, Elijah Coles, because by the June 1918 completion of Coles’ term, Rotary’s growth had again caused redistricting. Lone Star Rotarians became Rotary District 18, whose first DG, Thomas S. Reed, came from the Beaumont club. District 18’s second governor came from a club in present day 5870, the Rotary Club of Austin. Dr. Robert E. Vinson’s day job was president of the University of Texas.

During Rotary's 1922 international convention IARC became RI when convention delegates changed the name of the parent organization from the International Association of Rotary Clubs to Rotary International. The state of Texas except for the area south of the eastern boundary of New Mexico became District 13 with 83 clubs. Three years later, with about 100 clubs, Texas was split into Districts 41, 47 and 48 effective July 1, 1925. Austin, Waco, and the area northwest became District 41.

Texas had nearly 6,000 members in about 125 clubs in 1926 when San Antonio's Harry H. Rogers became the first Texan to serve as president of Rotary International. Our district number changed to 128 in 1937, then 131 in 1948, 187 in 1949, and in 1958 we became 587. During 1991, each of Rotary's 491 districts added a zero after their district number in anticipation of a larger number of small districts to ease the workload on district governors. Instead, RI's legislative council created assistant governors. The zero remains.

District 5870 begins 2021-22 with 56 clubs. Worldwide 1.2 million Rotarians meet weekly in more than 36,000 clubs located in more than 200 countries and geographical areas. Their humanitarian efforts impact lives at both the local and international level. On February 23, 2022, Rotary celebrates its 117th anniversary.

Last year, five Rotary Clubs – Belton, Corsicana, Hillsboro, Taylor and Temple – each celebrated their 100th anniversary, having been meeting regularly since 1921. This makes them older (by one year) than Rotary International. This year between July 1, 2021 and June 30, 2022, the following eight clubs will celebrate a significant milestone:

Rotary District 5870 LEADERSHIP

RI DIRECTORS FROM DISTRICT 5870

Rotary International is governed by a board of directors composed of the international president, the president-elect, the general secretary, and 17 zone directors. Approximately 15 Rotary districts form a zone. A Rotarian who serves as a member of the RI board of directors represents two zones. The paired zones alternate nominating a PDG from their zone to serve on the RI board for two consecutive years. During 2018-20, District 5870 was represented by RID Larry Dimmitt residing in District 5710. Effective 1 July 2020, Suzi Howe is the RI Director representing us. She is a member of the Rotary Club of Space Center and is a Past Governor of District 5890 which encompasses the Greater Houston area.

Rotarian	Term	Position(s) Held	Club
Donald Strickland	1973-75	RI Director, RI Vice President	Somerville
R.J. "Jack" Forrest	1983-85	RI Director, Rotary Foundation Trustee	Mexia

REGIONAL LEADERS FROM DISTRICT 5870

Rotary's regional leaders — Regional Rotary Foundation Coordinators (RRFCs), Rotary Coordinators (RCs), Rotary Public Image Coordinators (RPICs), Endowment/Major Gift Advisers (E/MGAs), and End Polio Now Coordinators (EPNC) — use their knowledge and skills to support and strengthen clubs, to focus and increase Rotary's humanitarian service, and to enhance our public image and awareness.

Regional leaders work through districts to connect Rotarians with resources that support Rotary's goals and deepen its impact in communities locally and around the world. They also serve as trainers and facilitators at Rotary institutes, governors-elect training seminars, regional and zone seminars, district training, and other events when asked.

Appointed by the RI president or The Rotary Foundation trustee chair, regional leaders serve a three-year term, subject to annual review. There are 40 teams of regional leaders worldwide; each team is led by an RI director with support from a Foundation trustee, if one lives in the region.

"The essence of Rotary will likely continue to be as undefinable as life itself. Therefore, we cannot hope for many results from definitions of Rotary but must rely on Rotarians acquiring a working knowledge of the appropriate activities which they are expected to perform, and then urge them to carry those activities into practice in their daily lives."
