Vocational Service Narrative for the Rotary Club of: Ala Moana

Promoting the Rotary Four-Way Test: The Club uses its weekly club meeting to promote the Rotary Four-Way Test. Each week a Club Member is assigned the role of engaging the membership into reciting the Rotary Four-Way Test. Each Club Member engages the membership using their own discretion. For example, some Members ask the membership to recite the Four-Way Test by memory. Other Members asks the membership to recite the Four-Way Test by the table the membership is seated. Each week varies keeping the membership on its toes and keeping the Four-Way Test top of mind.

Recognizing Community Members (Non-Rotarians) for Outstanding Achievements: The Club was honored in recognizing Chef Dave Hamada of Kapiolani Community College (KCC) Culinary Arts Department during the 2017-18 term for his and the school's achievement in handling the Club's annual fundraiser in the Ohia Cafeteria on the campus of KCC.

Vocational Scholarships to Non-Rotarians: The Club presented a $4,000 scholarship to the Kapiolani Community College Culinary Arts Department during the 2017-18 term to help students further their development in the culinary arts vocation.

Networking Event: The Club had a Pau Hana event in August 2017. It served as a professional networking opportunity as well as a club membership recruitment opportunity. Club Members invited their friends and other spheres of influence (SOI) to the Club's pau hana. One-third of the Club's membership attending the event and/or invited a friend or SOI to this event.

Member's Company Tour: The Club is looking forward to a Club Vocational Moment in which we will tour the Hawaii Convention Center hosted by a Club Member who is employed at the Hawaii Convention Center. This tour has been a suggested venue during the 2017-18 term considering the Rotary International Convention in 2020 will be held in Honolulu, Hawaii, at the Hawaii Convention Center.

Promotion of Guest Speaker's Vocation: The Club featured as its guest speaker at one of the club meetings Men's Shed Hawaii, an organization that helps retired and senior men share their skills, laughter and efforts on individual and group projects. One of the Club Members tapped into this organization to help build a Men's Shed organization as part of her development program at the senior assisted living facility at which she is employed.

Vocational Service Narrative for the Rotary Club of Hanalei Bay

This year, The Rotary Club of Hanalei Bay launched the inaugural Catch A Wave Business Competition. The inspiration for the event was the fact that Rotary initially began as a group of business leaders working together to help each other. With this in mind, we decided that supporting our local small businesses in some way would be a great way to give back to the community we love.

Adapting from the television show "Shark Tank," our committee of ten Rotarians set out to create an event where we get a group of finalists on stage to present in front of a panel of judges, with an audience of business leaders, investors and community members. We began back in the fall of 2017 by putting out a simple application on a Google Form and tapped our vast network to get local small businesses to apply. Our focus was on companies that were already operating - we didn't want ideas for companies that hadn't begun yet. We got our local newspaper to write a couple articles, asked the local Small Business Development Center (SBDC) and Kauai Economic Development Board (KEDB) to send it out to their groups and asked our neighboring Rotary clubs to spread the word.

We ended up with 32 applicant companies! For our tiny little island community, we were very pleased with that result. Our applicants cover a wide array of business shapes and sizes, representing the wide diversity of this island. One of our applicant companies has even advanced to the later stages of qualifying for the actual "Shark Tank" television show! Our committee of Rotarians has been fantastic - we've scheduled an interview for each of our applicant companies with two of our Rotarians. These meetings have been part 'interview' and part 'mentoring session.' We did our best to pair our interviewers' areas of expertise with the needs of the applicant company based on their application so that, even if the applicant company doesn't make it to the finals, they'll walk away from this whole process gaining some insight and valuable relationships from the interview.

The event itself is taking place on May 18, 2018 and will feature 6-8 finalist companies presenting to a panel of four judges, who themselves have diverse business backgrounds. Our club has been kind enough to set aside funds in this year's budget for this event and we've also been able to gather outside sponsorship from the local Chamber of Commerce, the local newspaper and a handful of other sources. Each finalist company will have time to present their business and then time for Q&A from the judges. Our judges will select our first-, second-, and third-place winners, who will receive monetary and in-kind grants from our sponsors. All the while, we hope to provide a night of entertainment to the community!

Finally, we're really looking forward to where this can go in years to come. We already have companies that missed this year's application window asking us to get on a waiting list for next year.

Come Catch A Wave with us.

In May we will present the Business of the Year.

A donation was also presented to the Junior Achievement Program.

ROTARY CLUB OF HILO

2017-2018 VOCATIONAL SERVICES CITATION REPORT

July 12, 2017

Survey. We began the year with creating and distributing a survey to members to respond to Vocation Services activities of the past and ideas for the upcoming year. Five priority outcomes were identified:

1. Continue doing business visitations.
2. Projects should be coordinated with other committees – membership, community service to avoid event conflicts.
3. Continue individual member recognitions.
4. Promote January as Vocation Service month (moved from October).
5. New member does a Vocation Talk within 30 days of their induction.

October 20, 2017

Board Hosts. To connect board members and members at lunch, during our club assembly, board members were assigned a lunch table and whoever sat at that table, he/she would welcome, introduce to others on the table and engage in a conversation about themselves and their duties on the board.

January 5, 2018.

Vocational Services Month. I announced that the month of January is focused on one of the five avenues of Rotary and that there will be a few activities planned. With coordination with Membership Committee, Connie Ichinose, VS kicked off with two new members introducing and sharing themselves with the membership at lunch. Josh Countess and JD Domizio were the Vocation presenters for the day.

January 20, 2018.

Rotary Code of Ethics. I reminded members this was Vocational Services Month and spoke about the 4 Way Test and the Rotary Code of Ethics. Members were given copies of the Code and encouraged to review it on their own and display in a prominent place as a reminder for oneself and to show others you are a member of Rotary Ethics.

February 2, 2018.

Member Vocational Talks. Pat Guillen and Newton Chun did vocation talks.

February 23, 2018

Planned Business Visitations.

March 16, 2018.

Business Visitation Sites Confirmed. Lisa Rantz, Hilo Medical Center Foundation; Lorraine Shin, Penn Fitness & Training Center and Mitch Dodo, Dodo Mortuary volunteered to host the Friday, April 6 Business Meetings. A flyer and sign-ups were passed around at the meeting. Currently there are 25 sign-ups. Business visitation date is scheduled for April 6, 2018.

Rotary Club of Hilo Business Visitation Day. Hosts, Lisa, Lorraine, and Mitch with their staff will welcome and share about their business operations and how the 4 Way Test aligns with their company's mission.

Vocational Service Narrative for Rotary Club of Honolulu Sunset

Honolulu Sunset Rotary Newsletter Each month a different member has been featured. The member wrote their own article explaining how and why they decided to join Rotary. The member explained their vocation and how they began working in their given profession.

Vocation Talks At Weekly Meeting Using the style of a “talk show”, President Nicole interviewed several members at a special meeting. The relaxed style allowed membership to understand a given member’s vocation without a stuffy formal presentation. We then paired off and shared a brief vocational exchange after which we discussed something interesting we learned about our partner.

Mentoring RCHS Rotarian mentors UH Nursing Students as part of their curriculum. Students participate in hands-on patient care under the direction of skilled Registered Home Healthcare Nurses

Aloha Medical Mission: Rotarian Glen Bailey is a magician and annually volunteers to provide Magic Shows for the children awaiting medical treatment by Aloha Medical Mission physicians. Rotarian Jonathon Okabe, DDS provides free dental services for the Palama Settlement, serving low income families.

YWCA: Rotarian Lore Woodley works closely with the YWCA assisting needy women by providing mentoring for the “dress for success” program. This is part of an Adult Literacy program for transitioning women back into the community.

Rotary Means Business Several members are active and participate regularly in the Rotary Means Business mixers. One of our members holds a leadership position in Rotary Means Business and provides our club with insight into locations that host the meetings

Jefferson Elementary School S.T.E.M. We support the S.T.E.M. projects at Jefferson Elementary School. We funded three 3D printers last year which are being used this year to build parts for robotics activities. This year our funds provided for a Quadcopter allowing students to photograph their school from the air. Money was provided for buying and building submersible cameras. We toured their facilities to appreciate the resulting advanced training available to students at this k – 5 grade school. Our support allows them to begin to train Kindergarten students to learn basic coding. By the time students are in the 5th grade they design and build robots to perform specific tasks.

Men’s Shed Community Corps In a joint ceremony, we recognized State Senator Brickwood Galuteria with a certificate of appreciation for his support in the community for the acquisition of a facility to house the Shed and all our equipment. Senator Galuteria has been instrumental in working with the City of Honolulu and the State of Hawaii in getting the attention of Department Heads to locate working spaces for our members. We could not have been as successful as we have without his assistance.

Vocational Meeting at JABSOM On December 13, 2017 we had a vocational meeting at the John A. Burns School of Medicine to meet with and be briefed on the H.O.M.E Van Project. We provide funds for equipment and vaccines while JABSOM medical students and Professors provide free medical care to homeless on the Island of Oahu. Dean Jerris Hedges, Dr Julie Ormori and Michael McNulty spoke about how the program makes a difference to homeless women and children. Michael’s presentation was extremely poignant as he explained how, as a college graduate, he found himself homeless on Oahu. The story of his struggle provided a glimpse into life on the street. His determination to succeed led him to the position he fills today as Program Director. His success story reinforced our support for this program.

Vocational Chair – Waikiki Rotary Club – Sylvia Makk

This year I have the pleasure of being the Vocational Chair for Waikiki Rotary. I find it important for club members, both new and old (as far as membership) to get to know what the other does in their business life. We tend to focus on the new members joining our clubs, but do we know what some of the longstanding members do? I mix up the vocational talks to both new and old members. We learn so much this way about our fellow Rotarians.

Rotary on the Road is one of my favorite activities. It gets everyone out of the routine meeting and spices things up a bit. On February 21st we visited Hagadone Printing Company where PDG Clint Schroeder gave us a brief history of Hagadone and how he got started with the company. The tour of the facility was amazing as we all realized what a huge operation Clint is at the helm of. Many people had no idea.

Our next Rotary on the Road is scheduled for May 16th. I am confirming our visit to Martin and MacArthur main facility where we will meet, watch and talk to the craftsman who work with koa. This will build an appreciation of what goes on behind their business and how items get to the store front. (One of our members Boris Huang is a feather artist and works with Martin and MacArthur.)

I plan on organizing a networking activity – perhaps more in a game form. Making it fun is crucial. Again, it is important for us to know what the other does, and how we should try to help one another. I look at Rotary as an extended family.

I am also the Rotary Reader Coordinator. Four of our Rotarians volunteer every first Wednesday of the month to read to the kindergarteners at Waikiki Elementary. The Rotarians love every minute with the little ones!

I have plans to accomplish more as Vocational Chair as this year progresses.

Much Aloha,

Sylvia Makk

Vocational Service Narrative for Rotary Club of; West Honolulu

Vocational Service Activities

Recognized a community member (non-rotarian) for their outstanding achievements. On October 20, 2017 our club put on a banquet of about 200 people recognizing someone of Hawaiian Ancestry. This award is given yearly to someone of Hawaiian Ancestry who contributed to the Hawaiian people, culture, and community in various respected vocations. Dr. Claire Ku'uleilani Hughes is the 61st recipient of this award dating back to 1957. This banquet is our club's premier event and is well respected in the Hawaiian Community and District 5000. Our 2017 recipient has spent more than three decades raising public awareness of Hawaiian health needs. She is a longtime champion for Native Hawaiian health care and advocate of the traditional Hawaiian diet. This award is indicative of the person who the award is named after: David Malo. David Malo was a renaissance man who excelled in different areas of service for the people of Hawaii.

Vocational Scholarships to Non-Rotarians

Awarded college scholarships to current high school students in the amount $21,000. The decision to award these scholarships were based on academic achievements, need, and vocational passion. It is communicated to these students what Rotary is about and stressed to someday give back and help the community in the same way that Rotary and these scholarships has impacted them.

Literacy Project

Our club's literacy project was the distribution of dictionaries to elementary schools in our area: Kalihi Uka, Ka'ewae, and Fern Elementary. A presentation was made to these students about the importance of education, reading, and writing which will help them determine an area of interest and type of occupation they want to pursue. We also educated the students about Rotary and the importance of service to the community and world.

Rotary Recreational and Vocational Fellowship

From 3/1/18 – 3/6/18, 9 rotarians from our club visited our sister club Kyoto West Rotary Club's 60th Anniversary. This was a time for celebration for their club and reflection on all the wonderful service they provided to their community and the world. The RC of Kyoto West has 3 sister clubs: RC of West Honolulu, RC of Taipei West, and the RC of Tokyo West. Together we connected and networked with the result of building good will and better friendships. We learned about our unique cultures and differences. The common bond was Rotary and that we all accomplish similar things wherever in the world we may be. We also learned about the different vocations of our sister club members and how they use their talents to serve Rotary.

Initiated a Career Development Program

On 3/27/2018 we met with the Farrington H.S. Academy of Business Lead Advisor to solidify the continuation of a Career Development Program. This academy is very broad and is comprised of students interested in various occupations related to the business field. Our club will continue to hold a career day which we can use our members to discuss professions of their interest. The students inform our club of the various professions of interest and our club puts together a career day based upon this.
