Bob Curtis

Nominating committee meeting on March 17 at 5:30 at the Treber Warehouse.
If you are interested in joining the board (2 year commitment) or becoming the 2nd VP (5 year commitment) let a past president know.

Lauri Osborne

100th Anniversary planning had a good meeting this week. The results of the survey are on your tables. Majority of the club want a project - next step is to determine what kind of project. Next meeting is April 7 at 5:30.

Announcements

Clarie Ley

Next week the ticket raffles for Chocolate Indulgence will start. Still looking for auction items.

Darwin Pace

Chocolate Indulgence security committee could use a few more people to help. Let him know if you can help that night.

Denise Newell

Mary Brown and Jan Duggard

Jan Duggard from American Red Cross is here - her application to join is pending. She brought information about smoke alarm installation day on April 18 and COVID-19 ready rating.

Jim Coomes

Was going to drive to Indiana this week for the NCAA Tournament, but now it is canceled.

Bob Monger

Used book sale was a success. It was the largest book sale they have done. Leftover books after the sale and Saturday and Sunday are recycled after non profits are given the opportunity to take what they need.

Board Report

Brian Lenell

It is with sadness that Kiwanis will not be supporting the Cheyenne marathon this year.

Chocolate Indulgence is April 3. We have secured $6800 in sponsorships and have 7 chocolatiers confirmed with a possibility of 5 more.

Mid Year Conference -Sam Weinstein and John Lynch attended.

Membership is down 4 members. Stands at 278. Ask people to join the Club.

After Hours met. Had several members attend and bounced ideas around for new things to try.

Corporate sponsorships: $20,750 in corporate sponsorships.

Facilities: Need to fix a skylight in the pole barn.

Quartermaster: developing plans for the enclosed trailer.

Vehicles: All good.

100th Anniversary: Working on determining what the Club wants to do. Next meeting on 4/7.

Stars of Tomorrow: Plans in progress for next year - the Club raised about $3500

Board Report

As a Distinguished Club we are eligible to apply for a $750 grant for a project. The Board will discuss ideas for this project next month. The application is due 5/15.

Community Service Requests:

Request for Letterman Jackets was tabled - waiting for more information.

Gave $300 to the Laramie County Progress Show

Gave $500 to the Ft Collins Eye Openers Club to help meal bagging. They are also looking for volunteers to help stuff bags on 4/18. Look for email from Brian for sign-up.

Boy Scouts of America request had no motion.

Safe Kids requested to use tables for the Safe Kids Event in May. They will use all tables.

$500 was given to the USA Swimming Club Cutthroats in Cheyenne to assist with travel costs to Oklahoma to participate in USA Sectional meet.

Wyoming Gaming Library requested the use of our tables. Request approved pending the date of the request.

Distinguished Club

John Rogers:
Congratulations to Chuck and Olivia. It is a great honor to be recognized as a distinguished club. It is one of his most honored pins in his Kiwanis collection.
