Was not present to win,
The Pig Rolls!

HAPPY DOLLARS

Bob Monger

Reminded everyone about the Delta Kappa Gamma book sale. There were plenty of books so they are doing it for the second weekend in a row. Saturday 8-6 and Sunday 9-1.

Niki Harrison

Cheyenne Animal Shelter announced the Fur Ball, Phantom of the Pawpera is the theme. They are looking for sponsorships and donations of auction items.

Rhianna Brand (with Phil VanHorn)

Still has cookbooks for sale. Phil Van Horn gave a happy dollar to share that he needed a birthday gift so he was going to buy one of these cookbooks. Also, MOW is looking for donations for their Thankful Thursday event in May.

Rick Houser

Happy that it's almost St. Patrick's Day. You can get dinner at Casey's Club for $15. He also is happy that he passed his physical and written test, so he is looking forward to softball season.

Capt. Saul Smoak

Gave a dollar for Jim Coomes for reminding him to come to Kiwanis. Also just lost 40 pounds due to an infection. He did receive a clean MRI so it's gone and he plans on maintaining his new weight. He also apologizes for his lack of attendance.

John Rogers

Happy to produce a history of Kiwanis for the gala. He got to dig through boxes that belonged to Le Jones. He is also happy watching the 100th anniversary committee prepare the event.

Nick Panopoulos

Gave a dollar in honor of Bob Monger's daughter who was named the President of CSU.

The electron microscope was invented on this date in 1931 by German scientist Ernst Rusk.

Fun fact, Kiwanian Rod Brand has used one!

TODAY'S PROGRAM

Cheyenne Kiwanis Foundation President Jim Coomes gave an annual update on the Foundation.

THANK YOU TO OUR CORPORATE PARTNERS!
