Announcements

Sam Weinstein

The board will meet next Tuesday at noon at the Red Lion.

Laura Munari: 8th Ave Cleanup

Thank you to everyone that came to help clean up and put mulch down on the 8th Ave island.

Kathleen Petersen: Highway Cleanup

Saturday is Highway Cleanup day. We have 17 adults and 2 kids signed up. If we can get 3 more adults signed up it should be a quick cleanup, 9am Saturday morning. Coffee, water and donuts will be provided. Bring gloves and sunscreen. Come out and help us clean up the highway! Trash/treasure bags and safety vests provided.

Not only will we do roadside (Hynds Blvd/I 25 frontage road between Vandehei and Horse Creek) and Sloan's Lake cleanup, we'll add in a sweep of the east recreation area or East Park on the 14th after Sloan's Lake.

Remember, in addition to picking up trash and beautifying these areas, we are searching for the best treasure! (Winner as selected by the club, receives the coveted Mickey's Big Mouth trophy traveling trophy!!!)

Ken Dugas: Friday Night on the Plaza

He has a sign up sheet for beer pouring volunteers for June 10. Two shifts 5-7:30 and 7:30 - 10.

He also is on the board for the Boys and Girls Club and has a table at their annual Back a Kid breakfast on May 10. He has a couple of more seats at his table. Let him know if you would like to attend.

Phil Van Horn: 100th Project Petition

We have more than 1100 signatures and we will be turning in the petition this week. Thank you everyone that helped obtain signatures. This project is a great opportunity for Kiwanis and the City to provide outdoor recreation activities for kids in Cheyenne. There is lots more work coming!
