Announcements

John Lynch:

We had one Kiwanian at the 11/5 meeting who tested positive for Covid a few days after the meeting. Another Kiwanian at this person's table subsequently also tested positive, remains in quarantine and the last I heard has mild symptoms. The others at the table tested negative.

Melody Fenton has agreed to be co-chair with Patty Walter of our Programs Committee, which is in charge of arranging for speakers. Thank you Melody.

We discovered we had not been flying banners for three generous corporate sponsors at the in-person meetings, so I will fly them for a few weeks at the Zoom meetings. These generous corporate sponsors are Blue Federal Credit Union, represented in the Club by Melody Fenton, RBC Wealth Management represented in the Club by Larry Walters and Century 21 Bell Real Estate, represented in the Club by Mike Hutton.

Lauri Osborne: 100th Anniversary

We are still looking for a chair for this event. Please let Lauri know if you are interested.

Lauri Osborne: Bell Ringing

There are still a few open spots for Bell Ringing in the afternoon.

Tom Roberts: Friday Food Bag

THANK YOU Darwin Pace, Nick Panopoulos, Deb Hottle, and Rod Hottle for helping fill Friday Food Bags on Tuesday, November 17th.

PLEASE NOTE - Was informed by FFBF this morning the filling will be on Monday, November 23rd rather than on Tuesday, November 24th.

Studies show that community social interaction promotes resilience in U.S. Military members.

- Making friends and other social connections is good for your health and well-being.
- Increased time to face stress with caring people leads to increased self-esteem.

The program is open to all first term Airmen and their families. It is also open to their families with spouses and children.
