Carole Collins, Mohave County

Carole Collins is Mohave County's Public Fiduciary Director. During her years in the legal business Carole found a passion for serving the elderly, mentally incapacitated and other vulnerable citizens leading her to pursue licensure as a fiduciary. Mohave County's Public Fiduciary Department serves as court appointed guardians, conservators and personal representatives, and administers the County's indigent burial program.

Rashiel Salim, MEMO

Rashiel Salem was first certified as a licensed fiduciary in April 1999 and now is owner of Mohave Estate Management Office (MEMO). She employs a staff of 8 and her practice continues to grow, predominantly with referrals for cases involving severe adult abuse and exploitation of vulnerable adults. In 2018 Rashiel obtained her degree in Criminal Justice.
