

ENGINEERS CLUB OF DAYTON

2017 WILSON A. CHARBONNEAUX AWARD

CALL FOR NOMINATIONS

This award, named for Mr. Wilson Charbonneaux, a longtime member of the Engineers Club of Dayton where he reenergized the Club's Barn Gang, and served on many of the Club's committees and who, during his career, established three successful companies and was personally granted 17 patents. He directed a great deal of energy to making science and technology understandable and accessible to the general public.

It is given to individual(s)/organization(s) for their innovative approaches to increasing the public's understanding of science and technology. The quality of their outreach will be assessed. A demonstrated commitment to advancing and defining the role of science and technology in all aspects of society must be shown. Volunteer/not for profit activities will have preference over Government/Industry funded activities.

Past winners have included Dayton aviation writers, Howard R. DuFour, Fred Fisk and Marlin Todd, Melba Hunt and Mary Ann Johnson, a founding member of Aviation Trail, Ralph Dull Homestead, Dr. and Mrs. James Stewart, Mr. Walter Hoy and Mr. Stephen Frey. Organizations that have been honored are The Boonshoft Museum of Discovery, The Experimental Aircraft Association's Young Eagles Program in the Dayton Area, the Affiliate Societies of Dayton for TechFest, the Wright "B" Flyer organization, Team Ohio Rocket Club, Air Camp and Mound Science and Energy Museum Association.

The nomination should include the name(s) of the individual(s) or organization, statements addressing the above criteria, and contact information. The award will be presented at the Engineers Club's Annual Meeting Dinner in June, 2017.

Nominations should be sent to the Engineers Club of Dayton, 110 E. Monument Ave., Dayton, Ohio 45402 by May 1, 2017

For more information or to submit a nomination via e-mail, please contact Ms. Darbie Kincaid at (937) 228-2148, dkincaid@engineersclub.org or the following link on the club website at <http://www.engineersclub.org>. Please include in the subject line of any e-mail "Charbonneaux Award"