Meetings in Review

June 6: Our speaker for the day was Casey Petit, Southwest Community Outreach Coordinator for the Children's Hunger Alliance which is a state-wide non-profit dedicated to ending childhood hunger in Ohio. 1 in 5 children are affected—575,000 Ohio children live in food insecure households. The Children's Hunger Alliance helps to provide meals and snacks to 275+ afterschool programs and 900 child care providers. They are working to increase the access to school breakfast and afterschool programs and helping to train child care providers and day care facilities. They also have a summer nutrition program where there are summer meal sites. They provide nutrition education and have an Eat, Play, Grow program where children learn about nutrition and physical activity. Guests: Laverne & Harry Sci (guests of Harry Bradbury) K-Donations: From Neal Leffel for his joke of the day and Chuck Sousa for the joke. Bill Nance acknowledged the 100 mile bike-a-thon for faith and friends radio where they raised fund for the Dayton Gospel Mission. Kelly Brown for an upcoming trip to Spain and France and Kelly also gave a $50 donation to the foundation in recognition of the retirement of Bobby Beavers.

We also held elections on this day and a motion was made by Neal Leffel and seconded by Bobby Beavers to accept the slate as presented. The following positions will be for the 2017-2018 Kiwanis Year.

June 20 : Our speaker for the day was Dan Suffoletto, Public Information Supervisor, Dayton & Montgomery County Public Health. Dan covered many areas that Public Health are involved such as the Community Health Plan working on Chronic Disease such as trying to reduce smoking and raise the legal age for tobacco. Get Up Montgomery County is the promotion for kids 5 or more fruits & veggies—2 hours of screen time—1 hour of physical activity and—0 sugary drinks. They are also involved in birth outcomes—reducing preteen birth—reducing infant mortality (black babies dies at a 3x higher rate) - no smoking and drinking while pregnant—center program for expectant mothers. Behavioral Health is also an are of importance—they ensure that access to needed services at the right amount, time and place needed—working on reducing the rate of overdose deaths as this is a large problem in our county. They also have Health Outreach Programs which include health screening, homecare, school nurses and immigration. Their epidemiology department collect and analyze data and monitor, identify and investigate and report health threats. Public Health also does HIV and STD testing, syringe exchange and works on mosquito control. Ticks are becoming more prevalent in Ohio and should be removed asap it takes 24 hours for them to transmit Lyme Disease. They are also involved in Emergency Preparedness and hold regular drills and are responsible for the coordination of all the agencies involved. They also inspect restaurants and public pools. Public Health's overall budget is $33 million dollars of which 45.4% comes from the Human Services Levy

K-Donations: From Neal Leffel for his joke of the day and his 53rd Wedding Anniversary.

Service Project to Benefit Brigid's Path Supply Drive

Brigid's Path is located in Kettering and provides inpatient medical care for drug-exposed newborns, non-judgmental support for mothers, and education services to improve family outcomes. They will be opening soon and we would like to help them get started helping the children in our community who have a need for their expertise.

We will be holding a supply drive for their ongoing needs through the month of August. Please bring any of the following with you to the Kiwanis Meeting or you may drop off to Laura in the Kiwanis office.

Please consider helping to change the lives of these babies by donating to their ongoing needs.

Ohio District Convention August 11-13 2017 Dayton, Ohio Dayton Convention Center

We are one of the host clubs for this year's District Convention which means that we need to have a good representation from our club at the event and we will need volunteers to help with various convention functions.

Early Registration of $75 applies through July 14th. July 15-August 5—$85 after August 5th must register in person Visit OhioKiwanis.org to register and for more details

Chuck Sousa is leading the Convention Service Project to collect 100 books from each club throughout Ohio to be donated to 3 local organizations helping needy children.

- Project READ, a coalition of agencies, schools and businesses working together to build skilled workers, strong families, and healthy communities.
- Help Me Grow/Brighter Futures, which empowers families with young children to succeed through a range of home visiting services.
- The Visitation Center at Haines Children's Center, offering a supportive, safe and comfortable environment for children and their families to spend valuable time together.
