find your way to ABWA

Have you gotten lost along your career path? Does your current job give you a case of the blahs? Are you looking for a way to become inspired again? Then why not let ABWA help show you the way?

In ABWA, you’ll become a member of a team of like-minded women who are all striving for success. Hundreds of ABWA leagues are working around the country, helping fellow members acquire new skills, expand their business knowledge and overcome challenges as they find new avenues to success. There’s probably an ABWA Chapter or Express Network right in your own community.

ABWA provides you with a safe haven to build and practice skills such as public speaking and team building and provides an organization where you can grow as a leader. As your confidence builds, you’ll soon be applying your new knowledge in your workplace or in your job search.

ABWA is the only professional development organization for women offering a powerful proprietary online educational storehouse, the Women’s Instructional Network (WIN), where you will find a huge cache of job-specific knowledge just waiting for you to dig into. In addition, you’ll have access to unsurpassed educational opportunities such as:

- Regular MBA-level coursework prepared exclusively for ABWA members by business professors from the University of Kansas.
- College-level leadership training courses offered by instructors from Park University.
- Regional and national conferences where you will meet many proven business leaders who are ready to impart their lessons to you directly.

ABWA is an incomparable value for women business owners to grow within their companies or to build one of their own. In addition to the valuable skill development tools we provide, ABWA offers a supportive environment where you can learn from your peers and establish life-long friendships with women who share your values.

Become a part of ABWA and take charge of your future. It’s time to invest in yourself!

The American Business Women’s Association was created because women need an environment where they can come together and pursue opportunities. ABWA provides the framework so you can focus and define your aspirations, with the support of like-minded women from across the country.

The American Business Women’s Association was established in 1949 to give women like you access to leadership, networking, and recognition opportunities—the three basic elements of career achievement. Through online business courses, insightful and timely seminars, and the opportunity to be part of both a local and national organization, ABWA has become the place to be for women who want to connect, learn and grow.

ABWA has grown into a prestigious national women’s organization that has made a difference for women for more than 65 years. Hundreds of Chapters and Express Networks throughout the U.S. offer monthly networking and professional development programs for members who continue to work toward dreams, empower co-workers, provide support for entrepreneurs, and so much more!

The mission of the American Business Women’s Association is to bring together businesswomen of diverse occupations and to provide opportunities for them to help themselves and others grow personally and professionally through leadership, education, networking support, and national recognition.

The Stephen Bufton Memorial Educational Fund (SBMEF) has been assisting women to succeed in higher education ever since its inception in 1953. Today it is considered one of the country’s most highly respected grant and scholarship programs for women.

SBMEF assists women who are pursuing advanced educational goals to achieve both business and professional success; to become role models, mentors, and leaders for the future. Since it was established in 1953, the fund’s Board of Trustees has awarded more than $17 million in scholarships to more than 17,000 women thanks to the generous contributions of ABWA members.

Selection of scholarship winners in communities across the United States has grown into one of ABWA’s favorite and most long-standing traditions for national scholarships, outright grants, and business skills tuition reimbursements. ABWA’s educational fund has four different scholarship programs to support women in their pursuit of knowledge: National Scholarship, Outright Grant, Business Skills Tuition Reimbursement, and Impact Scholarship. Each scholarship program has a unique set of guidelines, applicant eligibility requirements, and procedures. To participate in one or all of these scholarship programs, the sponsoring league and the applicant must comply with the requirements of each program. To learn more about each program or how to participate, visit the website at: www.sbmef.org or direct your inquiries to webmail@sbmef.org.

The Association provides professional development through both accredited universities and online training opportunities to help women grow both personally and professionally.

UNIVERSITY OF KANSAS AND PARK UNIVERSITY

In partnership with these fully accredited institutions of higher learning, ABWA’s goal is to deliver real-life coursework for real-life business women that is directly transferable to the real world environment, and supports women in advancing their leader skills and business acumen.

Each program consists of twelve, four-hour courses valued at .4 continuing education credits by the respective institution. Three courses are scheduled at each national conference event. Upon successful completion of either program, ABWA-KU MBA Essentials or Women as 21st Century Leaders, a member receives national recognition.

CONNECTING WITH WOMEN

ABWA’s publication, Women In Business, creates an opportunity for members to learn more about topics that have high interest to working women and high relevance to the Association’s mission. The magazine explores topics ranging from building your personal brand online to managing your health in winter, from struggles with the current economic forecast to overcoming the unstable job market, from finding a new way to do business to keeping you in style without breaking the budget, and so much more.

ABWA also utilizes the publication as an opportunity to recognize the accomplishments of members and share lessons learned from successful business leaders like Congresswoman Carolyn Maloney and former U.S. Surgeon General Dr. Regina Benjamin, basketball coach Pat Summitt, presidential daughter Jenna Bush Hager, and TV host and author JJ Ramburg. You will learn about the latest additions to the Women’s Instructional Network and stay on top of Association news. Each issue also includes a Food column written by James Beard Award-winning Executive Chef Debbie Gold as well as a Personal Portfolio department that features timely articles like “The First 100 Days After Losing Your Job,” “Every Resume Tells a Story,” and “A Checklist for Starting Your Own Business.”

In the summer issue, attention turns to ABWA’s National Women’s Leadership Conference with a special section of the magazine dedicated to speakers, entertainment, luncheons, and seminars. Women In Business is foremost about what matters to working women but also expands into areas that help women balance the personal with the professional.

How to Be Heard

The Newest WIN Module is Designed to Help You Find Your Voice

How to Be Heard is a series of self-study modules with social learning opportunities that will provide you with tips and strategies for finding—and amplifying—your voice in the workplace, better articulate your ideas, and see those ideas come to fruition.

- Module 1, “A Powerful Conception—Idea”
- Module 2, “A Survey of Influence Strategies”
- Module 3, “The Influential Power of Story”

You will begin with an exploration of ideas: where they come from and how inspiration is fueled. From there, you will make a study of one woman’s promising idea, how she attempted to sell it, and what went wrong. You will then collect both influence and persuasion strategies to aid in telling your story in order to capture the imaginations of those whose decisions or perspectives you hope to change.

For more information, contact ABWA at 1-800-228-0007.

Requirements: Participants in How to Be Heard must have Internet access and be able to commit to a minimum 1-2 hours of study time per day.
