ello.... OYC Family and Friends.

Wow! I just passed the seventh inning stretch and realize that I am going to get to do some real boating soon. First is the Daffodil Marine Festival April 10 - 12. We have 20 boats registered to attend – that is a BIG number. Beth Connolly is at the helm of this event and she and her crew have done some amazing work that will surely make OYC “Shine Your Light” (the theme of the event). Remember, you can drive up and join in on the fun.

Next, we are headed to Seattle’s Opening Day May 1 – 3. Join Joe and I as we have our first “going through the Locks” adventure. On the other side, we will all arrive at the Queen City Yacht Club where they have reserved spots for us and we will have power.

Also, remember the SYC folks who attended our last dinner meeting challenged us to make a big splash like we do at Daffodil. Up to this challenge? Special appreciation and applause goes out to Frank and Lisa Mighetto because they have volunteered their boat for decoration. SYC’s theme is Myths and Monsters... any decorating ideas? We will have a Decorated Boat and a Flag Ship in the parade. VC Mike and Patti Phillips and Joe and I went last year and it is a great event. What made it really special is that Dr. Theresa Madden and Rich Rocks invited us to join them on the Log Boom to watch the parade. It was a blast. We are looking forward to seeing some of you there this year.

Lastly, but most importantly, is our own South Sound Opening Day on Saturday, May 9th. It begins with our TGIF on Friday night. On Saturday, you can get breakfast (for a small fee) and then join us for our Opening Day ceremony that includes the American Legion Band, a special solo performance by our very own Nancy Stolark, and a moment to reflect on the power of the water and what it means to us. Following the ceremony, we will have a decorated boat parade and a barbeque on the deck in the afternoon. We are hoping to see all of you there to welcome our guests and the other dignitaries.

We have a busy couple of months, but a couple of months full of opportunities to get together and enjoy the water and being a member of our club.

We are so lucky! Happy spring and happy boating

Hello all as I am sitting writing this report and our sun has given way to the rain again. But I'm hearing that spring is right around the corner and that's a good thing. With spring it brings several events and they are Daffodil, Seattle Opening Day, Our opening day and Memorial Day. I am looking forward to all of them and I hope to see you at the spring events they are all great fun.

The Summer Cruise to the Islands:

There is not much to report at this time but I have spoken to all of the marinas that we are going to stop at during the cruise. All is going well except for Cap Santé in Anacortes it seems that they didn't write down our reservation and at this point they cannot accommodate us. So I called La Conner and was able to reserve 1000 feet of dock for the stop on the way home. They are going to send me a reservation sheet by June. At that point we will have to start thinking about doing a partial payment which will have to be done by July 1st. That is the only one that has to be done early. We will have another meeting in June to start working on that. So at this point just keep Xing out the days until the cruise it will be great!!!!!!!

Sincerely
Mike Phillips

I was very disappointed to learn that Whisky is considered by some not compatible with a serious diet. This simply will not do. Pausing to sip from my newest discovery, Rye Whisky, I gave some thought to the ascendancy of whisky as a drink of choice. I have always been partial to any single malt scotch with a descriptive "18 years" in the title and especially if the name starts with any derivative of "Glen". Unfortunately therein lays the problem. Any decent bottle of 18 year old scotch answering that description will burn right past a hundred dollar bill and, as you may know, a bottle simply does not go as far as it used to. Thus I present to you Rye Whisky.

In my investigation of this alternative I discovered that Americans have apparently developed a new found appreciation for this liquor historically synonymous with bar fights and slurred arguments over who left the stateroom hatch open right before the rain squall. While not cheap, good Rye does come in considerably south of the cost of 18 year old so I will go with that. This sealed the deal and I am back on the diet.

Speaking of which I am disappointed to report that even after the calorie conscious meal served at last month's dinner meeting my tux pants came up a little tight. Needing to attend the Seattle JO Ball I was forced to resort to the "inhale" technique, however slight, to get to that button on the pants. On the bright side I have no further occasions to wear the tux until the OYC Commodores ball. Plenty of time to lose that weight but none the less I am giving us all one more chance.

We're having Salmon! Not only a diet choice but, I am assured, is chock full of the necessary juices to prevent blurred vision, psoriasis and clogged arteries. How can you go wrong? There should be no excuses to miss this one. The cook says he will grill the salmon in honey butter with some wild and white rice pilaf on the side. We'll class it up with asparagus spears and rolls and butter. Salad, of course, and at the end, a slice of fat city Chocolate Mousse cake. Once again a diet conscious meal with the possible exception of the dessert. However the main courses are so healthy that the chocolate mousse is an easy add on. One can argue that the Chocolate Mousse cancels the extraordinarily healthy salmon so it's just like not eating at all. We'll just see how this goes.

On another matter the club needs you. We are losing to retirement our Set Up Committee Chair, Chad Clinton. After five or six years he needs a break. We are also losing our Centerpiece Chair, Dorrie Carr who is closing out her third year. The Set Up Chair is responsible, along with his or her committee, to set the tables for the nine dinner meetings and the two formal balls per year. This is 11 events each taking about an hour and a half to set up. You get the full 24 hours of CSP to handle this.

The Centerpiece Chair's tasks involve the table centerpieces at the nine dinner meetings and, with the guidance and support of the Christmas and Commodore's Ball Chairs, these two formal balls. You should be artsy to do this and Dorrie has a large inventory of centerpiece items that go with the job. There is a budget with this position along with the 24 CSP hours and it is, along with set up, a task that is very much appreciated.

Both of these positions are available June 1 so if you are interested in either please contact me or any other Bridge member.

Well, that's enough for this month.
See you around .

TOLIVA SHOALS – What a hoot! The South Sound was smiling this past February 21, when strong wind, warm sunshine and favorable tides came together to create the best Toli-va Shoals race EVER!! Enough said.

TGIF – The next one of these popular parties happens on Friday March 27, starting at 5:00 PM. Best entertainment and dinner in the South Sound. If you have attended, you know what I am talking about. If you haven't, save up $5.00 per person and come and share good friends and good times, with music, salad, pizza, growlers, sundaes and more.

South Sound Opening Day 2015 – Opening Day for the Boating Season is a tradition that stretches back more years than I know. It marks the time of year when the high season of boating in the Puget Sound begins, with all the associated pleasures our hamlet in the world affords, miles of protected ocean waterways, beautiful marina's large and small too numerous to count and of course, cruising and racing in earnest.

In the South Sound, we traditional celebrate Opening Day the weekend after Opening Day in Seattle – this year the date is Saturday May 9. Dean Questi, Fleet Captain Power, and I want to invite all OYC members to Opening Day, starting at 8:30 AM with a breakfast at the Clubhouse, followed by the American Legion Band Concert on the OYC outdoor deck at 9:30 AM and the Blessing of the Fleet at 10:00 AM.

There is an opening day parade of boats that starts at 12:00 Noon. Endless Summer, my boat, will be the Grand Marshall. Prizes for Best Theme Boat, Best Dressed Boat, Best Wooden Boat, Best Glass Boat and others are all possible for you to win. The theme for Lakefair 2015 is "Fabulous Family Fun" and an associated theme for the boat parade will be created – send me your best ideas of what our theme could be. Starting at about 3:00 PM, there is a BBQ on the OYC deck. All OYC members, mark your calendar and plan to participate in celebrating the opening of boating season – Opening Day 2015 – Saturday May 9.

Dean and I need help. Look for an upcoming e-mail to help us organize this amazing event.

The Poker Cruise at Island Home was a great time!! We started out with 2 tables and about 12 players. I think I was one of the first out, going all in and thinking that Tony Re was bluffing. We'll he wasn't!! Jay Grady ended up being the big winner.

My thanks to Gary Waldherr for putting this together. Weather was fantastic and a good time was had by all.

Hope to see a big turnout at Daffodil. It's always a great time, lots of activities and be sure to take advantage of the new waterfront walking path starting at the TYC heading east into town.

The final event for the Fleet Captain Power & Sail committee is South Sound Opening Day, May 9th. Contact us if you are interested in helping with this event.

I am sure most of you have heard by now that your BOT is investigating purchasing the 2 lots south of OYC. A committee has been put in place with Sue Wise as the Chair. The committee is researching any and all options for purchasing and development. Be advised that no transaction will take place until a vote of the entire membership has taken place.

Dock talk has already started in regards to purchasing the lots. If you have any questions, please call me and I will answer them. If I don't have the answer I will find it. Purchasing the property will NOT affect the plans for replacing the docks. We are going ahead with securing proposals from Contractors for the docks. The purchase will NOT affect our scheduled maintenance or infrastructure repairs.

Nominations are done in April so if you have a desire to serve on the BOT or the Bridge, please contact PC Jeff Pape. It is a privilege to serve in any capacity for OYC. Remember this is YOUR club. Get involved, attend the BOT meetings and learn firsthand what is happening around OYC.

My phone is always on so feel free to call anytime with any questions or concerns you may have.

See you on the docks!

Hi all

300 dock: Partial repairs have been completed. Two additional 24x24x20 tubs need to be installed in order to complete repairs.

An Aruba booster will be installed on Tom Skillings "highest point" boathouse by Brian Magnuson in the near future. The Aruba has the capability to put out 500 MB/s but realistically will perform at 200 MB/s 600 dock: Repair of 7 finger piers will be completed by June.

Please note any loose screws and/or nails on the dock decking and forward to OYC caretaker for tightening .

Happy early spring everyone. I hope you have all been enjoying the great sunny days as I have.

We are at the end of the first quarter of the year, hard to believe. I will post the first quarter report before the April dinner meeting so you will have the opportunity to check on your hours and see how you are progressing. Congrats to many of you who have already completed hours. For the rest of you, there will be many opportunities this Spring to get hours in from meetings, spring clean ups ant MS and IH, flower planting, opening day etc.

Remember that any of the Bridge, BOT, committee chairs, IH chair, MS chair or caretaker or myself can help you get connected if you are having difficulty finding something to do. CSP is a great way to help the club as well as meet new members and become involved. 24 hours service are required for 2015 and uncompleted hours will not be billed or show up on your bills until January of 2016. Hours performed now are not credited on your bill until next year.

See you at an event or on the docks.

Spring is here and we are scheduling our Island Home work party for April 25th. We will start the days festivities at 9am; if you are going to attend and plan on working all day, you will want to bring your lunch. We are planning on spreading 10 yards of beauty bark on the trail; trimming bushes and just general cleaning of the island. So if you can bring rakes for the bark and clippers for the brushes it will help.

Don't forget that we have developed a parking area to the right at the entrance driveway, please use and do not block access to this area .

PORT OF OLYMPIA MARINE FUEL DOCK PUBLIC INFORMATION MEETING

WHEN:

APRIL 8, 2015 AT 6:00 PM

WHERE:

OLYMPIA CENTER
222 COLUMBIA STREET NW
IN DOWNTOWN OLYMPIA

The port of Olympia is inviting the community to a fuel dock informational meeting to hear about the fuel dock survey conducted in the summer of 2014. A representative of Washington State University will present those findings.

The meeting will also include an updated financial analysis of the project along with an overview of the feasibility study.

The port has received requests for a fuel dock in Budd Inlet in the form of signatures on petitions presented by the Olympia Yacht Club.

It is important that OYC members attend this informational meeting and also speak in favor of the project.

The History Corner

Lisa Mighetto, OYC Historian

Everyone who visits Island Home appreciates the shelter in front of the clubhouse. This month's column features the members responsible for this structure: Bobby and Carol Brown, who joined the OYC in 1977.

The OYC outstation has always been important to the Browns. "We've had so many good memories over the years," Carol commented recently. "One of the best was the construction of the new clubhouse at Island Home... OYC is so lucky to have such a beautiful place to go and the new clubhouse is such an asset." As Carol recalled, it "was built with the help of a lot of the members donating their time and materials."

Given what was there originally, OYC members regarded the current clubhouse to be "quite a luxury." Carol painted a vivid picture of the need for a new facility at Island Home in the 1970s. The decking on the bridge, for instance, was "so rotten, it was dangerous walking on it." Even so, it sounds like OYC members had a grand time at Island Home from the beginning. "We used to have so much fun in the old clubhouse," she explained. "We used to all gather in the kitchen and play cards hoping the floor wouldn't fall in – and the bathrooms, too. They were just all old logs underneath." Carol also remembered the swimming pool at Island Home (described in past issues in this column).

The construction of the shelter evolved over time. Bob first assembled a "makeshift barbecue" using rocks from the beach. In 1979, he "decided people needed a place to congregate and stay dry while enjoying sitting around a nice fire," and organized construction of the shelter. During the Memorial Day cruise, he roasts a pig or baron of beef, which has become an important tradition at OYC.

Some of the traditions at Island Home have fallen away over the years. Carol recalled a "soap and suds" event with Shelton Yacht Club at Island Home, for example, along with volleyball tournaments and fishing derbies. Today, we remain grateful for the efforts of early members who helped make Island Home a stellar outstation. As Carol describes it, their contributions are part of the spirit of OYC members, who "pitch in and help whenever they could."

The photos show the shelter at OYC over the years – and a shot of Carol and Bobby's boat in Canada. They have owned a number of boats, including a 25-foot Bellboy, a 32-foot Fairliner, and a 36-foot Trojan. They bought their current boat, 42-foot Grand Banks, in 2011.

Last Month's Dinner Meeting

Rick and Patti Taylor

Above: Jim Sheerer pitched the third Public Information Meeting about the proposed Marine Fuel Station meeting April 8th. OYC officially supports the fuel dock but we are about a vote short of getting the project going. Jim urges us all to attend the meeting at 22 Columbia Street to help the appropriate folks see this is a high interest item with public support. You don't have to speak but that would be helpful. Make sure you sign in.

Seattle YC guests took a few pictures related to their opening day! (Photos provided by Myra Downing)

Environmental Awareness

Rick Bergholz, Chair

Environmental Safety Awareness Day

April 18, 2015

10:00am-2:00pm

The OYC Environmental Safety Committee is hosting this annual event again this year and we hope that you will attend to take advantage of the opportunities that we have set up for you.

The Power Squadron will be there to do annual safety checks on your boat. Just sign up and they will do their due diligence inspecting your boat so that you can get a 2015 compliance sticker. There is no cost to you for this service, but compared to the cost of fines when stopped by a Harbor Patrol or a Coast Guard Patrol it is well worth a trip to this OYC event! We were very thankful that we had done this when we were boarded by the Coast Guard one time. Yes! It can happen to YOU!

You can also get your fire extinguishers checked on that day but if they are outdated, servicing will be available at your cost. You can stock up on free diapers and filters, eat cookies, browse the latest gadgets and gizmos on display, eat more cookies, check out Inlet Diesel's stock of new environmental products for boats, maybe replace your flares, and a lot more. Oh and eat cookies! We will have some information about new and latest safety equipment available from local suppliers too.

Please put this date on your calendar. Your attendance makes the event a success.... Even if you just come to eat cookies! Help to make our Club's efforts to keep our end of the Sound environmentally safe now and for future generations.

Thank you!

(Written by Gwen Sowray)

Government Affairs

Gary Ball, Chair

We would like to welcome a new committee member. He is Steve Finney, a new yacht club member who works for Microsoft as their sales representative for all state agencies in the Olympia area. He will be a valuable contributor to our committee.

OYC hosted its' annual reception for local and State elected officials on March 2nd. The event was well attended despite the House of Representatives being held in session until six pm that evening. Commodore Myra gave a rousing opening welcome to the group followed by remarks from our fellow co-sponsors:

RBAW (Recreational Boating Association of Washington) and NWMT (Northwest Marine Trade Association).

Issues emphasized included the need for an interim dredge of Capitol Lake, finding a way to implement the Ruckelshaus recommendation and the adverse effects of the DNR proposed Habitat Conservation Plan (HCP).

Hosting this event was a group effort and kudos are due to many people. Lee and Susie Reeves for manning the greeting and sign in desk; PC Carol and her crew for preparing and serving a truly royal and stupendous buffet; the Fife's and Catherine Bander for manning the busy and popular bar; The Bridge, Board and OYC members that mingled with the guests and last but not least, thanks to members of the Environmental Affairs Committee for the set up and cleanup chore.

We are always looking for people who would be interested in joining our committee. If you are interested, please feel free to contact me.

First Aid Kits

You all need a first aid kit aboard. This column will address “off the shelf” ones that are available and I will address additional items in a later one.

First consider who you are. Are you a 72 year old retired surgeon whose medical needs and mandate to help others may be considerably different from the healthy 30-something with small children and no time to go past civilization? Are you planning to go offshore where you will have to be totally self-sufficient or will easily pulling into a town meet your needs? Will you be in a remote area in a slow boat where communications via VHF or cell are not present? Will there be storms that prevent a sat phone from summoning a chopper? And don't forget your guests who may be aboard (4 legged or two) – remind the two legged ones to bring ample supplies of their meds for the trip.

First – a good book! Look it over before the fateful day and unless someone is really in extreme shape, sitting down and letting the adrenaline rush subside is a great idea. Find a handy spot for it!

Here are several inexpensive books to consider:

- Wilderness & Travel Medicine: A Comprehensive Guide, Adventure Medical Kits Sep 13, 2012 by Eric A. Weiss MD and MD Jacobs Michael E
- On-Board Emergency Handbook: Your Indispensable Guide to Handling Any Challenge at Sea Apr 21, 2006 by Tony Meisel

Amazon.com has hundreds of other choices.

Also on Amazon, I found these kits that would satisfy basic needs and are variously priced. Check over their contents and see if they satisfy your needs.

- Adventure Medical Kits UltraLight & Watertight .7 Kit $23.50
- Orion Safety Products Coastal First Aid Kit $26.99
- Adventure Medical Kits Weekender Kit $46.47
- Adventure Medical Kits Mountain Fundamentals $89.99
- For $300 and up, there are offshore models available.

For more dollars, you get more stuff. Read carefully – are twice as many band-aids and safety pins worth the price? Can you just add other things to make the basic kit better? We will address that later.

Meanwhile it is raining outside. Go to your boat and check out what you have in your kit. Is the tape a gooey mess? Did your meds outdate during Reagan's administration? Is the case rusted shut? Do it!
