DOUG ELLIS, Retired CEO
Southern Mills, Inc.

Kaye Lanning Minchew, Author

"Angel Flight Soars"

"A President in our Midst: Franklin D. Roosevelt in Georgia"

Doug Ellis retired as the CEO from Southern Mills, Inc. and now spends his time as a commercial pilot for Angel Flight. He spent two years in the US Navy on a pacific fleet destroyer.

Born in Atlanta, he attended Atlanta public schools and has spent his life giving back to the community. He served as a director for Year Up and The PATH Foundation, and also was chairman of the North Atlanta District Boy Scouts of America, the Atlanta Cerebral Palsy Center, Metro Atlanta United Way campaign, and the Westminster Schools.

A past president of the Atlanta Rotary Club, he is very involved in his church and served as Chairman of the David, Helen and Marian Woodward Foundation. Professionally, Ellis was president of both the American and Georgia Textile Manufacturers Associations and served as a director for NationsBank and John Wieland Homes.

Ellis graduated from Princeton with an AB in economics and Georgia Tech with a BS in textiles. He also received his MBA from Harvard. He and his wife, Florida, have three daughters.

Kaye Lanning Minchew Kaye served as ED of the Troup County Historical Society in LaGrange, GA from 1985 until 2015. She oversaw operations of the Troup County Archives and Legacy Museum on Main.

She received a BA from UNC—Asheville, and both an MA and Master of Library Science from UNC-Chapel Hill. She served on the Board of Curators of Georgia Historical Society from 1992 to 2004 and the editorial board from 2007 to 2012. She is recipient of the Georgia Historical Records Advisory Board Lifetime Achievement Award, 2007. She was named a Fellow by the Society of American Archivists in 2011 and by the Society of Georgia Archivists in 2009.

Her book A President in Our Midst: FDR In Georgia was published by the UGA Press in May 2016. A second book, Managing Local Government Archives which is co-authored by John Slate of the City of Dallas, Texas, was published by Rowman and Littlefield in early July, 2016. She received the Bruce Dearstyne Distinguished Service Award from the National Association of Government Archivists and Records Administrators at their annual meeting in July, 2016.
