

GRANDIOSE UTTERINGS OF MONACO SOUTH

The Optimist Club of Monaco South - Denver, Colorado

Colo.-Wyo. District
Volume 1, Number 12

Denver, Colorado
December 21, 1984

Rugby Spoden came back from his 9,000 mile trip to and up and down the east coast to deliver the morning prayer and lead us in the Fledge of Allegiance. Good to see you again, Rugby.

Guests - Fred Pasternak was our guest this morning. He has been one of our more faithful and diligent workers at the Tree Lot, which leads me into the next topic you guessed it..... the Tree Lot - We have ninety trees left but are selling them like hot cakes; According to Frank, we've sold a ton of trees already and need a lot of help tomorrow to sell, Mel, sell and clean up the trailer and the lot. Give as much time and effort as you can.

Charter Presentation Banquet - President Bob announced that we and our wives have been invited to attend the Charter presentation banquet of the Optimist Club of Rangeview, Aurora, which was sponsored by our club and formally organized on September 28, 1984. Every club in our district has been invited to send members to this event, which will be held at the Hilton Inn South, Orchard Road and I-25, on Thursday, January 24, 1985. Dinner will be served promptly at 7:30 PM with an "attitude adjustment hour"! #z preceding dinner. To allow time for adequate planning, they need to know how many of us are coming by January 18, 1985. The dinner dress will be informal, and the cost will be $10.50 per person. If interested in attending, call your reservations in to Bob Fretz at 235-0505. Contact Bob Hugo first so that he can coordinate our club's participation.

December 22 - You have a potpourri of Optimist functions to choose from tomorrow - 9:30 - meet at Gene Nosal's house to help in the distribution of the food baskets; all day tomorrow - the Tree Lot; and at 5:45 the British Buses will be departing from the Alpine Ice Arena with the Excelsior girls and their staff to go caroling and have dinner at Shakey's and return to the parking lot at about 10:00 PM. Whew! Movie at 11:00.

Comedy Corner - Arch had a good 'un about those nuns; John Young a knee-slapper on the Twelve Days of Christmas; and the waitresses were oblivious to it all because of those ear plugs they said they got on sale from the Broncos. Curt J. and creative tooth decay! Great!

Christmas Toys - Tom Mauro says that many good toys have been received and that they will be delivered to the children of women in the Battered Womens' Shelter. Thank you, Tom, for your work on this special project.

Xmas Party - Oscar reported about the success of the party, as, indeed, it was. In the lost and found department, someone left without their wicker basket, and another a glass tray.

Santacautfield Came and went, donned in gay apparel. Thanks, Santa, for all those super gifts; everything from aftershave to ice scrapers you gave. 'tis the season to be jolly, deck the halls with bells of holly, fa la la la la, la la la la. Thank every Optimist who gave of some time and attention to help our youth along their way. And for making it fun, along our way. Alleluia! Praise the Lord for the gift of giving. Amen! Alleluia

Alleluia

Alleluia for the gift He gave to us!

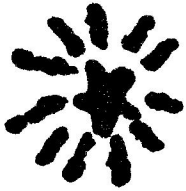

and Merry Christmas!!
