VOLUME 1, NUMBER 7
NOVEMBER 14, 1986

Duane Wehrer topped off the end of the week with the Invocation, and asked for a continuance on the fine weather.

EXCELSIOR CHRISTMAS EVENT

Fellow Optimist Ron Cisco visited us this morning to tell us about the yearly get-together with the girls at Excelsior. It will be held this year at the campus, which is at Buckley Road and Hampden. We will not be taking the bus around town this year due to insurance rates. It will be held Fri., Dec. 20, and will be pot luck, so all those attending need to bring a dish. A sign-up sheet will be available next week.

SQUARE DANCE

The annual square dance was well attended by the Monaco So. crew. Among those participating were: Oscar Sorenson, Ron Gustas, Larry Sward, Curt Jeffries, Dr. Ed Frankhauser, Bill Litchfield, John Young, Doug Morton, and Coy Horton. Along with the above Optimists were their respective significant others. A good time was had by all.

BOYS CLUB DINNER

The dinner this year is scheduled for Tuesday, Nov. 25, at the Club at 8th and Inca. Bill Walters, whose company caters the event, would like all those helping out to be there at 5:30.

THANKSGIVING BASKETS

We will be putting together 5 baskets of food for needy families on Sat., Nov. 22. All those signed up need to meet at Oscar's house at 3075 So. Spruce Way (751-4268)

TREE LOT

Joe Marci announced that the tree lot sign-up sheet will be passed around this morning. If you can sign-up during the day, please let Joe know immediately. Again this year, if you work 3 - 3hr. shifts, you can get your tree for half price. Since this is our only fund raiser, we need everyone's support in working the lot.

Randy Hampton also announced that he will be holding a wreath-ribbon tying session on Thur., Nov. 20, at the Hampton's house. (3091 So. Rosemary) Popcorn and movies will be provided.

OLYMPICS OF THE MIND

Tom Mauro indicated that Holm School needs assistant coaches for the OM program this year. If you can help out, there will be a meeting at school on Thur., Nov. 20, at 7:00 pm, or call Tom.

DONATION

Curt Lorenzen announced that Jerry Staples and his company were able to donate a copier to Excelsior this past week. I'm sure they appreciate it very much, along with all the other help given to the school by all the clubs. Thanks!!

FIGURESKATING CHAMPIONSHIPS

Monte Hoyt expressed his thanks to the members and significant others that helped out at the recent event. The workers were as follows: Curt Jeffries, Bill Walters, Dave Roberts, Diane Swigert, Lupe Salinas, Oscar Sorenson, Curt Lorenzen, Tom Mauro, Kathy Young, Don Thompson. Monte said this group was responsible for putting in 40 hrs- GOOD JOB!!!

PROGRAM

Our speaker this morning was James Casart, CPA, who gave us a look at the new tax law. The law will go into effect in 1987, and virtually affects all taxes. Some of the changes include: reduction from 14 tax brackets to 2

- no income averaging
- no tax exempt IRA's for those with other pension plans
- Tax shelters have been dramatically changed
- Depreciation amounts have been re-structured

Apparently, this law was to be called the "Simplified" version, but was not due to the Truth in Advertising Act.

Thanks, Jim, for a very informative discussion.

MIKE MILLER AWARD

The drawing was ~~figged~~ won by Ron Cisco, John Young, and Coy Horton. Even Mike Miller did not have a chance today!!!
