

MD-PETS Speaker / Facilitator

Louisa Horne and Doug Logan

Louisa and Doug are experienced entrepreneurs and leaders with special interest in organizational and leadership development, change management and strategic thinking. They are passionate about delivering engaging experiences and exploring best practices for continuous improvement – especially in Rotary.

Doug and Louisa are both dynamic speakers and first-class facilitators, each having spoken and led workshops in hundreds of locations around the world. Feedback from their breakout sessions at Rotary's International Conferences in Toronto and Hamburg described them as 'the best' at each event.

Doug is a retired management consultant 're-born' as a mystery writer, having recently published his first book 'A Matter of Thyme'. He currently serves as Assistant Rotary Coordinator for Atlantic Canada. As District Governor, he led the re-organization of the District's governance structure, resulting in a significant improvement in organizational continuity and stability. Doug is a multiple Paul Harris Fellow, Rotary Benefactor and Rotary Bequest Society member.

Louisa is Chair of the District 7820's Leadership Team and is a multiple Paul Harris Fellow. She is an entrepreneur, business leader and doctoral scholar. A former geologist, teacher and Chief Academic Officer of national educational companies, Louisa is now an independent Management Consultant (CMC), specializing in leadership development and strategic thinking. She is also a certified corporate director and certified business coach. Louisa has three degrees from Dalhousie University in Science and Education and is now pursuing doctoral research at the University of Leicester related to civic engagement.
