

Robert C. White, Jr. (Bob)

Colonel (Retired) Robert C. White, Jr is a native of Flint, Michigan. He received his Bachelor of Arts in Political Science from the University of Michigan in 1968 and a Master of Arts in Latin American Studies from the University of Texas in 1970. In 1990 he completed a sabbatical year at Queen's University, Kingston, Ontario, Canada where he was the Visiting Defense Fellow at the Centre for International Relations.

Since retirement from active service in 2000, Colonel White has been an active member of the Rotary Club of Sierra Vista, AZ, a member of the Cochise County Sheriff's Assistance Team, and currently serving as a Director on the Board of the Legacy Foundation of Southeast Arizona. He has served in numerous local Rotary Club leadership positions and on the D5500 Rotary Foundation Committee from 2013-2021 as the Chairman of the District Grants Subcommittee from 2013-2018 and of the Global Grants Subcommittee from 2018-2021. He is a multiple Paul Harris Fellow, a Rotary Foundation recognized Major Donor, a Bequest Society member, and a member of the Paul Harris Society.

A recent widower, Colonel White was married to the former Kathleen Deming of Cadillac, Michigan. They have two children. Colonel (Retired) Robert Scott White, USMC, living in Concan, Texas, and a daughter, Maureen Love, a teacher residing in Cave Creek, Arizona.