

Marco Cecala

Marco is retired from a Civil Engineering Practice and lives in Yarnell with his wife Rebecca Wilks. They are supports of the Guatemala Literacy Project and active in other efforts as well.

Marco came from a vocational education background, first in the jewelry business then home building and civil construction.

The opportunity to work with others and help them to find meaningful careers is a great opportunity.