Getting Started With the Learning Center

Getting Started With the Learning Center	Introduction
Introduction	Rotary's Learning Center is a central location to find information and gain knowledge about Rotary. It's your source for learning, whether you're a new member seeking to explore all that Rotary offers, a club or district leader completing essential courses for your role, or a participant seeking to enhance your leadership skills. The courses and learning plans in the Learning Center also provide the most up-to-date information about current Rotary policies and practices.
Courses and learning plans
Taking a course
Tracking your progress
Tips and support	The Learning Center is customized for you according to your membership status, your language, and your role in Rotary. You get to it by signing in to My Rotary. If you know nonmembers or prospective members who want to take courses, tell them that they don't have to be members to create a My Rotary account and use the Learning Center.
Resources
What's next?	This is what you'll see if you're a Rotary or Rotaract member or the executive secretary of a Rotary club or district.

COURSE DETAILS

The screenshot shows the course details page for "Rotary's Action Plan and You". The page is divided into several sections:

- Header: Includes the Rotary logo, a search bar, and navigation icons.
- Course Title and Progress: "Rotary's Action Plan and You" with a progress indicator showing "0 of 4 lessons completed".
- Table of contents: A list of course components:
 - Rotary's Action Plan and You (SCORM)
 - Rotary's Action Plan What Clubs Can Do (File)
 - Action Plan Glossary (File)
 - Course Evaluation (HTML)
- Start Learning Section: A central box with the text "Start learning from Rotary's Action Plan and You" and a prominent "Let's Begin" button.
- Description and Resources: A section with tabs for "DESCRIPTION" and "ADDITIONAL RESOURCES". The description text reads: "Learn how Rotary's Action Plan can help your club increase its impact, expand its reach, better engage its members, and keep adapting to a changing world. Our research shows that clubs that develop and follow a strategic plan are stronger than clubs that don't. Their members are more satisfied and view their clubs and Rotary more positively." Below this is a "Show more" link. The "Additional Resources" section contains a search bar and a result for "Rotary's Action Plan and You Discussion Guide".
