ARTICLE IV

President

The President shall preside at all meetings of HRYF and of the Board of Trustees. The President shall appoint all committees, and shall be ex-officio member thereof. The President shall have the ordinary duties of the chief executive officer of any corporation and shall, in effect, run the affairs of HRYF, in accordance with the By-Laws of HRYF. The President shall seek the counsel, advice and assistance of the Chairman of the Board, and/or the Vice Chairman of the Board, in any and all matters deemed necessary and appropriate and they shall serve as ex-officio members of all committees. All necessary registrations or reports (such as the annual filing with the State DCCA Department) shall be sent to the proper agency in a timely manner.

Additionally: The President works with the Administrative Assistant in overseeing the promotion of Foodland's Give Aloha Campaign, collects dues from the member Rotary Clubs, and the donations to HRYF from the Clubs and their members. The President provides the Clubs with the information needed to promote the HRYF scholarship program to high schools. The President works with the Weinberg Foundation to provide annual reports and the renewal of the Weinberg grant; files tax returns, and schedules the Annual Board meetings with the proposed budget, calendar, and new slate of officers. The Annual Membership meeting follows. Additional meetings may be called for by the President if required.
