ORAL PATHOLOGY: DIAGNOSIS AND MANAGEMENT OF COMMON ORAL LESIONS

OVERVIEW: The differential diagnosis and management of the most common oral lesions will be reviewed (ulcers, white/red lesions, desquamative gingivitis). A strong emphasis will be placed on clinical features.

Dr. Julien Ghannoum, DMD FRCD(C)

Dr. Ghannoum graduated in oral and maxillofacial pathology from the NY hospital (Cornell University) in 2003. He currently works in Montreal at the Notre-Dame Hospital (CHUM), Maisonneuve-Rosemont Hospital and in a private practice. He is also a part-time researcher at the CHUM Research Center. Dr. Ghannoum has a private oral histopathology laboratory, where he analyses biopsy specimens from dentists and oral surgeons throughout Canada.

TREATMENT OPTIONS FOR THE EDENTULOUS PATIENT

Dr. Nach Daniel, Bsc Msc DMD FRCD(C)

Dr. Daniel earned a Bachelor degree in Microbiology and a Master's degree in Molecular Biology in 1995. He then completed a Doctorate of Dental Surgery and a one year multidisciplinary residency at Université de Montréal. In 2006 Dr. Daniel completed his training in Oral and Maxillofacial Surgery at Laval University in Quebec City. Dr. Daniel is a board certified Oral and Maxillofacial surgeon and runs a private practice in Moncton New Brunswick. He is the Director of the ECOS Continuing Education Center and has lectured extensively on the All-on-4® treatment concept. He is also an active member of the Moncton City Hospital.

REPLACEMENT OF THE FAILING ANTERIOR MAXILLARY TOOTH: immediate extraction with immediate implant placement and immediate temporization

Dr. Martin Bélanger, DMD FRCD(C)

Born near Tremblant, Quebec, Dr. Belanger completed his DMD at Laval University in 2005. The following year, he finished a year on General Residency in Montreal, at Notre-Dame Hospital. He went on to complete a Certificate in Oral and Maxillofacial Surgery for UCSF (University of California San Francisco) in Fresno, California, in 2010. He then accepted a 3 year contract with the largest rural healthcare system of the United States in Fargo North Dakota, as a full hospital-based maxillofacial surgeon. Dr. Belanger has full hospital privileges and is board certified in Canada and the United States. Dr. Belanger has extensive training in facial trauma, orthognathic surgery, obstructive sleep apnea, dentoalveolar surgery, facial reconstruction and bone grafting, dental implants and IV anesthesia.
